The State Controller's Office has received unclaimed property belonging to over 17.6 million individuals and companies. This includes bank accounts, stocks, bonds, uncashed checks, and safe deposit box contents. Most accounts become unclaimed when there is no owner contact with the institution or account activity for three (3) years. Often the owner forgets the account exists, or moves and does not leave a forwarding address or the forwarding address expires.

Property, or the proceeds of its sale if any,
may be claimed by its rightful owner.
